Mineral Insulated Cable

Agrees to repair or replace at the manufacturer's option any Delta-Therm factory-assembled mineral insulated (MI) cable assembly which fails to function within one year from the original invoice date if the failure is caused by defective workmanship or material or both.

Or, agrees to repair or replace at the manufacturer's option any Delta-Therm factory-assembled MI cable assembly within fifteen years of the completed installation date if all of the following conditions have been met:

1. Testing of the MI cable assembly is performed according to the installation instructions relating to the specific application;
2. Test Results and the Required Information requested on the attached sheet are sent in writing by registered mail to Delta-Therm within 30 days of the completed MI cable assembly installation;
3. The MI cable assembly is returned to Delta-Therm with proof of purchase and with a written explanation of the alleged defect(s); and/or is available for inspection by a Delta-Therm representative within 30 days of the discovery of the defect(s). No cables may be returned without prior authorization from Delta-Therm. For any MI cable assembly return, the consumer must prepay the shipment.

The consumer is responsible for all costs involved in removing the MI cable assembly, as well as all costs involved in reinstalling any repaired or replaced MI cable assembly. Delta-Therm Corporation is not liable for any incidental and/or consequential and/or business interruption losses or damages.

- Any of the following will void this warranty:
- Failure to follow Delta-Therm assembly, installation, and testing instructions, cautions, and warnings;
- Damage caused by abuse, misuse, alteration, or mechanical abrasion;
- Damage caused by inadequate maintenance or unsafe repairs or both;
- Failure to use qualified electricians for installation;
- Failure to install cable assembly according to all applicable local electrical codes and to the National Electrical Code.

Delta-Therm reserves the right to inspect the installation site(s) to determine whether this limited warranty applies.

This limited warranty is exclusive. There are no warranties of merchantability, and there are no warranties which extend beyond the description on the face hereof.
